Principal's Corner While living in North Carolina we would take Mrs. Stockman's grandmother, Mama Young, who lived to be 100 years old, out on short trips. If there was a lot of walking involved, we would take her wheelchair and push her around to get where we were going. One time we went up into the mountains to Camp Lutheridge as their church had a service and day at the camp. The terrain is very hilly and to start with someone else was pushing Mama Young. After the church service, I took over the duties of pushing her wheelchair. She looked back and saw me behind the wheelchair and made the comment, "oh, there's my good driver." Not that the other people were bad pushing her, but she trusted me, and it put her at ease. Who is driving your life, who is behind your wheelchair guiding you as you go. For Christian believers, God is the one in control. He will see us through all situations and be there with us every step of the way. We need to turn to God in prayer and ask for His guidance and love and trust in Him and know that He is always with us.
