Principal's Corner

In a devotion I read recently, it told a story of a sociologist that accompanied a group of climbers as they climbed to the top of a mountain. The sociologist observed that when the sky was clear and the climbers could see the peak, the climbers were energetic and cooperative. But when clouds came in and obscured the peak, the mood of the climbers changed, and they became sullen and selfish.

Our lives can be very much like that of the climbers. When we fix our eyes on God and his great works he has created and the mercy and grace he gives us each day, we have a bounce in our step and joy in our heart. But when the troubles of this world cause us to look down and lose our focus on God, our attitudes change, and we lose the joy in our heart. We grumble and complain and find reasons to be selfish. But, when we refocus on God, we can bring that joy back to our hearts. Keep your head up and look for the works of God in our lives and in our world today.

At TLS we bring the good news of Jesus Christ to our students every day, to help them keep their eyes focused on God.

Mrs. Leiding and Mr. Stockman took the 7/8th to Camp Omega the 15th & 16th and had a great time! They hung out with a couple other schools from Eastern Minnesota (Silo & Winona) and did some fun activities. Bible studies, camp songs and campfire, amazing race, team building, bottle rockets, and archery were a few of the things they did. Thank you to a donor for providing some funds for this, as well as our parents. We are thankful to have a Lutheran camp so close that we can enjoy God's creation.

A QUICK CARDINAL VOLLEYBALL UPDATE

B team is 1-1 for this season so far with a great first win on their first match of the season and a tough loss for their second match of the season to St. Mary's in Owatonna in the third game.

A team is 4-0 with winning a nailbiter against Saint Mary's in Owatonna in the third game by one point! We are all learning a lot about being a great team player and improving our volleyball skills weekly.
